OPERATIONAL ACTIVITIES FOR DEVELOPMENT

Comprehensive statistical data on operational activities for development for the years 1988 and 1989

Note by the Secretary-General

Addendum

1. In its resolution 35/81 of 5 December 1980, the General Assembly requested the Director-General for Development and International Economic Cooperation to submit annually a report containing comprehensive statistical information on operational activities for development of the United Nations system.

2. Preliminary statistical information for 1988 and 1989 were provided in documents A/44/324/Add.4-E/1991/106/Add.4 and A/45/273/Add.4-E/1990/85/Add.4. Complete statistical data including revision of some figures previously published, are now being made available to Member States.

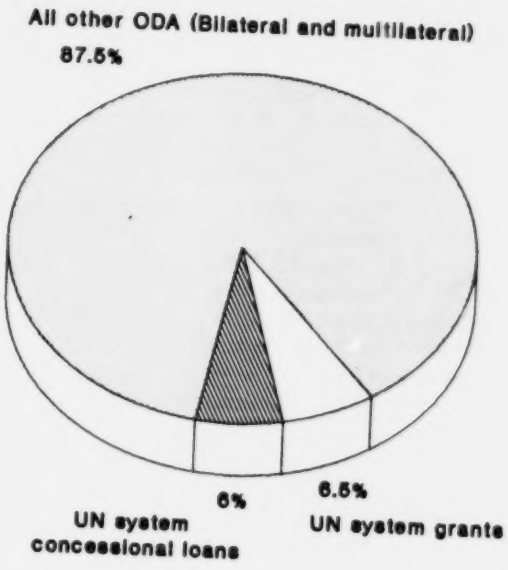
OPERATIONAL ACTIVITIES IN THE UNITED NATIONS SYSTEM IN 1989: A QUICK GUIDE

1. Various kinds of resource flows, domestic and external, public and private, commercial and charitable, serve to promote the economic and social advancement of developing countries. Of these, official development assistance (ODA) is an important element which serves as a barometer of development cooperation and is channelled through bilateral and multilateral institutions. In 1989, it totalled $53.1 billion as net ODA expenditures by donors. a/ About 12.5 per cent of total ODA was provided in concessional flows through the organizations of the United Nations system, divided almost equally between development-related grants (6.5 per cent) and concessional loans (6.0 per cent). (See table B-1.) a/

THE UN SYSTEM'S SHARE OF TOTAL ODA, 1989



2. As indicated in detail in the present document, expenditures on operational activities through the United Nations system comprise: development-related grants; concessional loans; non-concessional loans; and refugee, humanitarian and special economic assistance and disaster relief. These totalled about $4.3 billion in 1989. (For loan expenditures, only net transfers were counted.) This was composed of development grants $3.4 billion, concessional loans $3.2 billion, non-concessional loans minus $3.2 billion and grant-financed refugee, humanitarian, special economic and disaster relief activities $0.9 billion. (See chart 2 and table B-1.)

a/ DAC countries, non-DAC OECD countries, CMEA countries, Arab countries, other donors (China, India, Israel, Korea, Nigeria, Venezuela and Yugoslavia).

3. The operational activities of the United Nations system in the largest sense include all of the above. A distinction should be made, however, in the grant-assistance category between development-oriented activities and humanitarian and relief assistance provided by UNHCR, UNRWA and UNDRO. These two forms of grant assistance should be distinguished from non-concessional and concessional loans provided by the World Bank, including its IDA facility, and IFAD. b/

4. Another important analytical distinction is to group the concessional loans and development grants of the system and to designate these as net transfers of concessional assistance for development. The total came to $6.56 billion in 1989, of which $5.9 billion was for individual recipient countries. Development grants comprised over half of these amounts. (See table B-3.)

5. Geographically, over four fifths of all the concessional resources in 1989 were allocated to Africa and the Asia and Pacific regions. Activities in Latin America and the Caribbean, in Western Asia, and in the "interregional, global and other" category accounted for virtually all the rest. (See table B-4.)

THE COMPOSITION OF UN SYSTEM ASSISTANCE, 1989 (Excluding non-concessional loans)

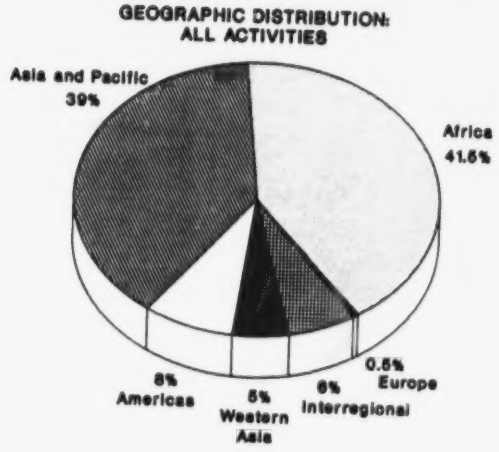
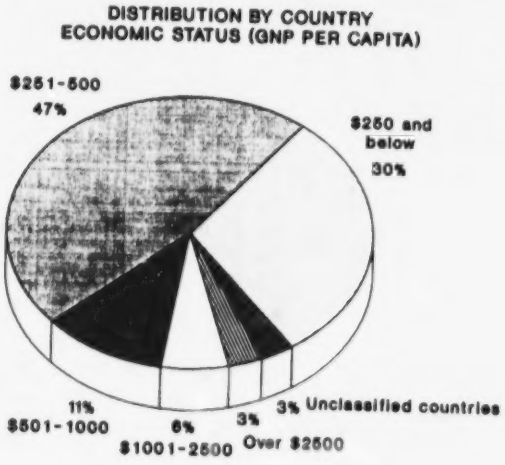
b/ To facilitate the analysis, all financing through UNDP and UNDP-administered funds is assumed to be in the form of grants, all IDA and IFAD transfers to represent concessional loans.

THE UNITED NATIONS SYSTEM'S CONCESSIONAL RESOURCES FOR DEVELOPMENT NET TRANSFERS, 1987





6. The United Nations system's strong focus on assistance to the poorest countries is quite evident. About 46 per cent of all concessional development assistance (including grants) in 1989 was provided to countries classified as "least-developed". About one third of the total concessional assistance was for countries where the gross national product (GNP) per capita was $250 or below; a total of almost one half was for those where GNP per capita did not exceed $500. In 1989, IDA net transfers amounted to $3.0 billion (i.e., more than half of the total concessional assistance to individual countries). Of that, one third was devoted to countries where GNP per capita did not exceed $250 and over one half to those where GNP per capita was between $251 and $500. (See table B-7.)

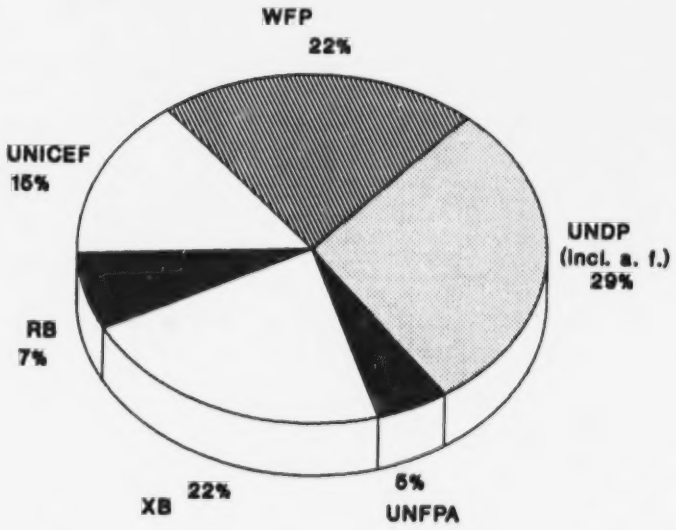
7. Inclusion of the demographic factor permits yet another perspective on the distribution of the system's concessional development assistance. Overall, these resources amounted to $1.11 per capita in 1989. In the poorest countries the figure was much higher, at $2.03 per capita (See table B-8.)

8. Turning now to grant assistance for development, this represents both financial contributions through a range of institutions and the food aid for development projects channelled through WFP. The Resident Coordinator of Operational Activities for Development of the United Nations System assumes overall leadership in the organization of such assistance at the country level, as well as of some relief activities. As indicated in paragraph 1, in 1989 the total grant contribution represented 6.5 per cent of total ODA.

9. The distribution of grant expenditures in support of development activities in 1989 was: UNDP, including UNDP-administered funds, $981 million, WFP $761 million, extrabudgetary (XB) including agency trust funds and Government "self-supporting" funds $749 million, UNICEF $501 million, regular budget (RB) $246 million, and UNFPA $157 million. (See tables B-2 and B-5.)

10. Over 60 per cent of 1989 country-level expenditures benefited from integrated general policy and management advice from the UNDP resident representative, who also serves as the official field representative for WFP and UNFPA. The UNDP Governing Council - holding review authority for the UNDP main programme, UNDP-administered funds and UNFPA - was responsible in 1989 for monitoring the expenditure of 33 per cent of such development activities. (See table B-2.)

THE PRINCIPAL CHANNELS OF GRANT - FUNDED ACTIVITIES FOR DEVELOPMENT, 1989



11. The sectoral coverage of the system's grant-funded development assistance is wide-ranging, but with strong emphasis upon the health, the agriculture/forestry/fisheries humanitarian aid and relief programme classification categories. Other areas of importance in 1989 included general development issues, policy and planning, natural resources, industry, population, transport and communications, education, science and technology, and employment. (See table B-6.)

12. The application of the term "technical cooperation" to the analysis of operational activities leads to a somewhat different demarcation, in which the food aid of WFP is excluded, but the expenditures on training and consultants included in World Bank loans and IDA credits are included. Such use of World Bank/IDA funds is estimated to have amounted to $1.1 billion gross disbursements in 1989. (See memo item, table B-1.) According to this formulation, total United Nations system technical cooperation expenditures were $3.8 billion, distributed among World Bank/IDA, UNDP and UNDP-administered funds, XB, UNICEF, RB and UNFPA. It should be noted that while World Bank/IDA technical cooperation-type expenditures are larger than those of UNDP, they are made through loans and credits to Governments and represent, on the whole, integral parts of specific investment projects.

THE PRINCIPAL CHANNELS OF "TECHNICAL COOPERATION" INCLUDING WORLD BANK/IDA, 1989

13. Implementation of the grant-financed development activities was undertaken by 28 organizations and agencies of the system, together with Governments, some NGOs and other non-United Nations entities. The major channels for such expenditures in 1989 were: WFP ($761 million); c/ UNICEF ($504 million); FAO ($358 million); c/ WHO ($357 million); DTCD ($156 million); UNDP ($145 million); ILO ($140 million); UNIDO ($128 million); UNESCO ($80 million); World Bank ($62 million); ICAO ($45 million) and IAEA ($41 million). Government (national) execution accounted for $146 million. The total for all other agencies was $470 million. (See table B-5.)

14. UNDP (including the UNDP-administered funds) has a central funding and coordinating role for technical cooperation within the United Nations system, and to this effect maintains strong linkages with the relevant agencies on substantive aspects of its work. In addition, the United Nations agencies are responsible for the execution of 72 per cent of UNDP-funded programmes. UNFPA, though focused on one sector, also channels its expenditures through a dozen United Nations agencies, as well as Governments; it also undertakes direct execution for some 17 per cent of its expenditures.

15. Twenty-four organizations of the United Nations system are executing agencies for UNDP. Five of these agencies, plus Governments and UNDP itself, delivered at least $57 million of UNDP main programme resources in 1989. Their shares of the total delivery for UNDP were: FAO

c/ It should be noted that WFP and UNICEF implement directly, with or through Governments, virtually all of the programmes they finance.

$164 million (19 per cent), DTCD
$100 million (11 per cent), UNDP
$101 million (11 per cent), Governments
$98 million (11 per cent), UNIDO
$79 million (9 per cent), ILO
$61 million (7 per cent), World Bank
$57 million (7 per cent). The total of all others amounted to $221 million (25 per cent). (See table B.5.)

16. UNDP and UNDP-administered funds financed 44 per cent of the technical cooperation expenditures of 23 of the above 24 United Nations system organizations in 1987. When expenditures for UNFPA are added, the result is that the Governing Council had within its purview, for these 23 institutions, the funding of 50 per cent of their expenditures on operational activities, for a total of $785 million.

17. At the same time, the significance of the UNDP central funding role, and of the UNDP Governing Council, must be seen in relation to both the volume and the distribution of RB and XB expenditures. Taken together, these expenditures, which are implemented according to the mandates and procedures of each agency, are greater than the resources managed by UNDP. WHO is mandated to devote at least 60 per cent of its regular budget resources to development cooperation, and has by far the largest RB programme. That of IAEA represents an even greater proportion of its expenditures on technical cooperation. FAO and WHO also have major XB support. The combination of RB and XB expenditures for WHO, IAEA and FAO was $536 million in 1989, representing 77 per cent of the total disbursed through those three agencies.

18. UNICEF is a special case. Although a self-funding agency, it received in 1989 UNDP-administered resources in the amount of $3 million. Its greeting cards resources amounted to $49.2 million in 1989. (See memo item table A-1.)

NOTE ON STATISTICAL INFORMATION

General note

1. Coverage, definition and sources for the figures used in this report are consistent with those for previous years' reports in this series. Modifications have been made to data presentation, column headings and table titles in the interest of greater clarity and internal consistency. Explanations of special cases, or of instances in which table totals do not match, have been given attention in the footnotes to tables.

Definitions and explanations

2. For information on the sources of data, see paragraph 45 of the first (1981) annual report (A/36/478, annex) and the footnotes to the tables.

3. The data represent final figures for 1988 and 1989. Should any further revisions or updating later prove necessary, this would be communicated to the General Assembly.

4. Data on contributions refer to contributions received from Governments and other sources by organizations in the United Nations system. Data on other income, related to resource transfers from one agency of the system to another, interest, etc., or the net profits from the UNICEF greeting card operation, are excluded. Data on expenditures and disbursements represent the support provided by organizations to the programmes and projects of developing countries; administrative, programme and other support costs, where identifiable, are excluded. UNICEF and WFP carry out both development assistance and some activities which are of a humanitarian or emergency character. To the extent possible, the related contributions and expenditures are separately identified. With regard to loans, net disbursements represent gross disbursements less repayment of principal; net transfers represent net disbursements less interest and other charges.

5. The expression "United Nations funds and programmes" refers to the funds and programmes listed by the General Assembly for participation in the annual United Nations Pledging Conference for Development Activities, and to other United Nations trust funds pertaining to development activities.

6. The designations employed and the presentation of the material in the present report do not imply the expression of any opinion whatsoever on the part of the Secretariat of the United Nations concerning the legal status of any country, territory, city or area or of its authorities, or concerning the delimitation of its frontiers or boundaries.

7. The term "country" as used in the present report also refers, as appropriate, to territories or areas.

8. References to dollars ($) are to United States dollars unless otherwise stated. A full stop is used to indicate decimals. Two dots (..) indicate that data are not available or are not separately reported. Parentheses ( ) indicate a deficit or decrease, except as otherwise indicated. A dash (-) indicates that the amount is nil or negligible or the item is not applicable. A hyphen (-) between dates representing years signifies the full period involved, including the beginning and end years.

9. Details and percentages in tables do not necessarily add to totals, because of rounding.

10. The following abbreviations have been used:

a/ Includes cost-sharing and government cash counterpart contributions, and contributions to Special Measures Fund for Least Developed Countries.

b/ Includes the Capital Development Fund, the Special Fund for Land-Locked Developing Countries, the Revolving Fund for Natural Resources Exploration, the Fund for United Nations Volunteers, the United Nations Fund for Science and Technology for Development, the United Nations Development Fund for Women and the Trust Fund for Sudano-Sahelian Activities; and other funds, accounts and trust funds of UNDP including trust funds established by the Administrator, and contributions for the Junior Professional Officers programme. Includes cost-sharing contributions to these funds.

c/ Excludes contributions to UNFPA trust funds, amounting to $3.7 million, and contributions from Governments for "special population programmes", amounting to $14.2 million for 1986. If these were included, the total would be $174.3 million.

d/ Includes contributions to trust funds and "special population programmes" of UNFPA in 1987. If these were excluded (as in 1986 and prior years) the total would be $149.4 million for 1987, $168 million for 1988 and $180 million for 1989.

e/ Other programmes included in the United Nations Pledging Conference for Development Activities and other contributions to United Nations bodies from sources external to the United Nations system. The United Nations Industrial Development Organization was converted into a specialized agency on 1 January 1986. All contributions to UNIDO including those to the United Nations Industrial Development Fund are accordingly included on line 8 rather than line 5 of the table, starting with the data for 1986.

f/ Starting with data for 1987, the method of calculating the entries for this line has been made consistent with that for the annual UNDP document on United Nations system regular and extrabudgetary technical cooperation financed from sources other than UNDP (cf. DP/1990/74). For convenient reference, the corresponding entry for 1986 would be $33.9 million.

g/ Includes contributions to the International Emergency Food Reserve ($147.2 million in 1987) and extrabudgetary contributions for 1987, 1988 and 1989 amounting to $99.3 million, $134.8 million and $208 million, respectively.

h/ I.e., the imputed share of regular budget financing of technical cooperation expenditures in relation to the distribution of assessments among Member States.

i/ I.e., voluntary contributions from bilateral official and non-official sources, from multilateral sources other than United Nations funds and programmes, and from government "self-supporting" contributions to organizations. Through 1986 this line also includes resources received through the World Bank, and a portion of contributions to entities of the United Nations.

j/ Includes $48.0 million received through the World Bank, and $33.9 contributed to entities of the United Nations. If these were excluded the total would be $354.9 million.

k/ Starting with 1987, resources received through the World Bank and through contributions to entities of the United Nations are no longer counted on this line. As regards the former, see the memo item at the bottom of the table; re the latter, see footnote (f) above. If these elements were included (as in 1986 and prior years), the total would be $499.5 million.

l/ The figure given in document A/45/273/Add.4 has been revised on the basis of corrected information.

m/ Of the total amount of contributions received in 1987, 1988 and 1989, respectively, $66.7 million, $81.8 million and $12.6 million related to the IFAD Special Programme for Sub-Saharan African Countries Affected by Drought and Desertification.

n/ The entries for 1981-1985 represent annual payments of contributions to IDA recorded on the note deposit basis. Starting from 1986 the entry is on the note encashment basis, which in the estimation of IDA provides a more accurate picture. The entry for 1986 on the note deposit basis would be $3,653.9 million. Previous entries on the note encashment basis would be: (1981) $1,964.7; (1982) $2,159.0; (1983) $2,698.3; (1984) $2,422.4; (1985) $2,033.6.

o/ Due to revised figures in extrabudgetary contributions, total differs from that given in document A/45/273/Add.4.

p/ Includes contributions to UNHCR, UNRWA, UNDRO, and United Nations trust funds for emergency assistance (including special economic assistance programmes) from sources external to the United Nations system. Includes contributions for emergency relief to Lebanon mobilized through the United Nations through 1986. Regarding contributions for WFP emergency operations, see footnote (q) above

q/ Starting with 1987, resources mobilized by, but not contributed to, the United Nations for emergency relief to Lebanon are no longer counted on this line. For convenient reference, the amount of such resources indicated as raised in 1986 was $18 million.

r/ Represents net profit from sale of greeting cards, which resources are then used in operational activities.

s/ The amounts received, which are included in the figures for line 1 above, are here separated out for reference.

t/ The amounts received, which are included in the figures for line 8 above, are here provided for convenient reference.

a/ I.e., UNDP central resources, including expenditures financed from Government cost-sharing contributions. Through 1986 the entries also include expenditure financed from government cash counterpart contributions ($7.5 million in 1986).

b/ Starting with 1987, expenditures financed from government cash counterpart contributions are no longer counted on this line. Such expenditure for 1987 amounted to $9.5 million. For convenient reference, if the entry for 1986 were calculated on the same basis, the total would be $681.7 million.

c/ Includes project expenditures for development activities and emergency operations. Of the latter, most was financed from the International Emergency Food Reserve and the remainder from WFP general resources.

d/ The major share of such expenditures is financed by WHO. In accordance with resolution 29.48 of the World Health Assembly of May 1976, allocations of the regular programme budget were to reach the level of at least 60 per cent in real terms towards technical cooperation and provision of services to States members of WHO. Data for WHO also include support costs.

e/ I.e., from funds not elsewhere specified in the table. Line 7 is not immediately comparable to line 8 in table A-1, in that it includes some expenditures financed from United Nations funds and programmes listed in line 5 of table A-1. Also included are expenditures financed from government "self-supporting" contributions, amounting to $70.5 million in 1987.

f/ Includes extrabudgetary expenditures by WFP amounting to $72.0 million in 1987, $158.7 million in 1988 and $191.3 million in 1989.

g/ Includes expenditures by UNHCR, UNRWA, UNDRO and United Nations trust funds for emergency assistance (including special economic assistance programmes). Includes the amounts mobilized through the United Nations for emergency relief to Lebanon through 1986. Regarding expenditures for WFP emergency operations, see footnote (c) above.

h/ Starting with 1987, resources mobilized by, but not spent by, the United Nations for emergency relief to Lebanon are no longer counted on this line. For convenient reference, the amount of such resources indicated as mobilized in 1986 was $18 million.

i/ Represents services engaged by Governments receiving loans from international development banks or grants from bilateral donors. See DP/1989/75, para. 21 and para. 28, table 4.

j/ Figures not yet available.

k/ I.e., gross disbursements on "training" and "consultants" embodied in World Bank loans and IDA credits to borrowers.

l/ The amounts spent, which are included in the figures for line 7 above, are here separated out for reference.

b/ Includes the Capital Development Fund, the Special Fund for Land-Locked Developing Countries, the Revolving Fund for Natural Resources Exploration, the Fund for United Nations Volunteers, the United Nations Fund for Science and Technology for Development, the United Nations Development Fund for Women and the Trust Fund for Sudano-Sahelian Activities; and other funds, accounts and trust funds of UNDP including trust funds established by the Administrator, and contributions for the Junior Professional Officers programme. Includes cost-sharing contributions to these funds.

c/ Excludes contributions to UNFPA trust funds, amounting to $3.7 million, and contributions from Governments for "special population programmes", amounting to $14.2 million for 1986. If these were included, the total would be $174.3 million.

d/ Includes contributions to trust funds and "special population programmes" of UNFPA. If these were excluded (as in 1986 and prior years) the total would be $149.4 million for 1987 and $168 million for 1988.

e/ Other programmes included in the United Nations Pledging Conference for Development Activities and other contributions to United Nations bodies from sources external to the United Nations system. The United Nations Industrial Development Organization was converted into a specialized agency on 1 January 1986. All contributions to UNIDO including those to the United Nations Industrial Development Fund are accordingly included on line 8 rather than line 5 of the table, starting with the data for 1986.

f/ Starting with data for 1987, the method of calculating the entries for this line has been made consistent with that for the annual UNDP document on United Nations system regular and extrabudgetary technical cooperation financed from sources other than UNDP (cf. DP/1988/55). For convenient reference, the corresponding entry for 1986 would be $33.9 million.

g/ Includes contributions to the International Emergency Food Reserve ($147.2 million in 1987) and extrabudgetary contributions for 1987 and 1988 amounting to $99.3 million, $134.8 million, respectively.

h/ I.e., the imputed share of regular budget financing of technical cooperation expenditures in relation to the distribution of assessments among Member States.

i/ I.e., voluntary contributions from bilateral official and non-official sources, from multilateral sources other than United Nations funds and programmes, and from Government "self-supporting" contributions to organizations. Through 1986 this line also includes resources received through the World Bank, and a portion of contributions to entities of the United Nations.

j/ Includes $48.0 million received through the World Bank, and $33.9 contributed to entities of the United Nations. If these were excluded the total would be $354.9 million.

k/ Starting with 1987, resources received through the World Bank and through contributions to entities of the United Nations are no longer counted on this line. As regards the former, see the memo item at the bottom of the table; re the latter, see footnote (f) above. If these elements were included (as in 1986 and prior years), the total would be $499.5 million.

l/ The figure given in document A/44/324/Add.4 has been revised on the basis of corrected information.

m/ Of the total amount of contributions received in 1987 and 1988, respectively, $66.7 million and $81.8 million related to the IFAD Special Programme for Sub-Saharan African Countries Affected by Drought and Desertification.

n/ The entries for 1981-1985 represent annual payments of contributions to IDA recorded on the note deposit basis. Starting from 1986 the entry is on the note encashment basis, which in the estimation of IDA provides a more accurate picture. The entry for 1986 on the note deposit basis would be $3,653.9 million. Previous entries on the note encashment basis would be: (1981) $1,964.7; (1982) $2,159.0; (1983) $2,698.3; (1984) $2,422.4; (1985) $2,033.6.

o/ Due to revised figures in extrabudgetary contributions, total differs from that given in document A/44/324/Add.4.

p/ Includes contributions to UNHCR, UNRWA, UNDRO, and United Nations trust funds for emergency assistance (including special economic assistance programmes) from sources external to the United Nations system. Includes contributions for emergency relief to Lebanon mobilized through the United Nations through 1986. Regarding contributions for WFP emergency operations, see footnote (g) above.

q/ Starting with 1987, resources mobilized by, but not contributed to, the United Nations for emergency relief to Lebanon are no longer counted on this line. For convenient reference, the amount of such resources indicated as raised in 1986 was $18 million.

r/ Represents net profit from sale of greeting cards, which resources are then used in operational activities.

s/ The amounts received, which are included in the figures for line 1 above, are here separated out for reference.

a/ I.e., UNDP central resources, including expenditures financed from Government cost-sharing contributions. Through 1986 the entries also include expenditure financed from Government cash counterpart contributions ($7.5 million in 1986).

b/ Starting with 1987, expenditures financed from Government cash counterpart contributions are no longer counted on this line. Such expenditure for 1987 amounted to $9.5 million. For convenient reference, if the entry for 1986 were calculated on the same basis, the total would be $681.7 million.

c/ Includes project expenditures for development activities and emergency operations. Of the latter, most was financed from the International Emergency Food Reserve and the remainder from WFP general resources.

d/ The major share of such expenditures is financed by WHO. In accordance with resolution 29.48 of the World Health Assembly of May 1976, allocations of the regular programme budget were to reach the level of at least 60 per cent in real terms towards technical cooperation and provision of services to States members of WHO. Data for WHO also include support costs.

e/ I.e., from funds not elsewhere specified in the table. Line 7 is not immediately comparable to line 8 in table A-1, in that it includes some expenditures financed from United Nations funds and programmes listed in line 5 of table A-1. Also included are expenditures financed from Government "self-supporting" contributions, amounting to $70.5 million in 1987.

f/ Includes extrabudgetary expenditures by WFP amounting to $72.0 million in 1987, and $158.7 million in 1988.

g/ Includes expenditures by UNHCR, UNRWA, UNDRO and United Nations trust funds for emergency assistance (including special economic assistance programmes). Includes the amounts mobilized through the United Nations for emergency relief to Lebanon through 1986. Regarding expenditures for WFP emergency operations, see footnote (c) above.

h/ Starting with 1987, resources mobilized by, but not spent by, the United Nations for emergency relief to Lebanon are no longer counted on this line. For convenient reference, the amount of such resources indicated as mobilized in 1986 was $18 million.

i/ Services engaged by Governments receiving loans from international development banks or grants from bilateral donors. See DP/1989/75, para. 21 and para. 28, table 4.

j/ Figures not yet available.

k/ I.e., gross disbursements on "training" and "consultants" embodied in World Bank loans and IDA credits to borrowers.

l/ The amounts spent, which are included in the figures for line 7 above, are here separated out for reference.
